Effortless and integrated e-billing

Save time and money with automated invoice workflows and auditing tools

- Eliminate paper invoices with a single searchable system that securely manages invoices in any electronic format, including industry-standard LEDES.
- Enforce billing guidelines with the help of AI-assisted invoice review to manage timekeeper rates, expense compliance, alternative fee arrangements (AFAs), and more.
- Operate both locally and internationally thanks to currency conversion, VAT compliance, and tracking of domestic and foreign taxes.
- Connect your law firms' billing software directly into Legal Tracker with eBillingHub and automate invoice payment by connecting it to enterprise accounts payables systems (i.e. SAP and Oracle).
