D&B DATA CLOUD ESG PRODUCT AND PRICING OVERVIEW

For supply chain and investment requirements there is demand for due diligence around Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) insights and performance metrics, this is particularly true with new EU directives which will likely expand over time. On this basis D&B has developed an ESG ranking, with the aim to rank all businesses globally.

As part of the ESG suite, there is also Climate Risk and Human Rights Risk Insights.

The data is provided via an API, or a batch method, or via AI tools such as Chat D&B and data sharing platforms such as Snowflake and Databricks.

The data insights are built through continuous monitoring of a vast number of sources for changes that impact information in the Dun & Bradstreet Data Cloud, including dynamic changes to business relationships. Changes are verified, and updates made to the Data Cloud as relevant. These changes can be fed through to clients using the data via the Dun & Bradstreet Data Blocks Monitoring capability.

The data blocks available are defined in the service definition.

ESG, CLIMATE AND HUMAN RIGHTS RANKING PRICING

An ESG Ranking measures the potential risk in incurring reputational, regulatory, or operational damages that could impact performance, and from a public sector perspective all the above are important.

The ranking is available as a Batch or API deliverable. The pricing is based upon

1. The number of base records to access
2. The regions for the data e.g. UK and Europe or Rest of the World.
