Our G-Cloud 15 listing contains our day rates across a number of different roles. As requirements vary, we usually agree the suitable role and level of supporting resource required for a specified service with a client, along with which rates and payment mechanisms are appropriate.

As specific services required vary significantly in terms of size and complexity, prices and payment mechanisms (e.g. fixed price or time & materials) will be discussed and agreed with the customer for each specific service required based on the particular programme of work and the level of experience required.
