

Abavus - Consultations

Product	Licence Structure	Annual Licence Subscription
Town council licence. Provides a digital capability for local authorities to design, publish, and manage public consultations. The module supports structured engagement with residents, collection and analysis of responses, and integration with existing portals and service workflows, enabling transparent, auditable, and efficient consultation activity in line with governance requirements.	Unlimited users (site licence)	£995.00
Standard council licence. Provides a digital capability for local authorities to design, publish, and manage public consultations. The module supports structured engagement with residents, collection and analysis of responses, and integration with existing portals and service workflows, enabling transparent, auditable, and efficient consultation activity in line with governance requirements.	Unlimited users (site licence)	£4,995.00

Prices exclude VAT

Prices exclude integration project costs